DEDICATION

COL. BEN H. SETTLES

This edition of the Shavetail is dedicated to the new commander of Officer Candidate school, Colonel Ben H. Settles, who exemplifies the high goals to which we aspire. As the first graduating class of your command, we extend a hearty welcome to you, and hope your stay here will be pleasant and rewarding.

It is fitting that you as a pioneer of the jet age should prepare us for the space age. We regret our brief association, but we leave secure in the knowledge that future classes will benefit from the wealth of experience you bring to Officer Candidate School.

TO THE GRADUATES OF CLASS 1962-A:

Congratulations on successfully completing the difficult and rigorous program of Officer Candidate School which has earned you the privilege of serving as a commissioned officer in the United States Air Force. Your accomplishment should be looked upon with individual pride. I hope your future service as officers reflects the fundamentals learned here. Application of the same steadfast persistence and high ideals you displayed as officer candidates should ensure each of you success in the officer corps.

I am proud of you as graduates of OCS, and I am happy to have this opportunity to extend my Best Wishes.
